The basket picnic at Shiner School No. 2, was well attended and everything passed off pleasantly.

We Are Still Going

Emler's Restaurant!

We always find something good to eat here.

Two Big Pigs.

Mr. Joe Sobotik returned Tuesday from Houston where he marketed the two big pigs which he purchased from a Mexican a few weeks ago. He received $102.00 for the two. They weighed 1408 pounds and are said to be the largest pigs ever sold in Houston.
There have probably been larger ones on exhibition, but not for sale, so Joe holds the record so far.

There is no reason why most any body should not raise these kind of pigs. If they do not grow to tip the scales at 700 pounds there is still good money at the present prices. Plant hogs.—Schulenberg Sticker.

Big Cotton Deal.

The genial Frank Johnson, the cotton buyer, scooped in a nice lot of cotton one day last week.
It was a round 500 bale lot, bought of Wolters Bros. and the check called for $34,000. This is an average of about $70.00 a bale.

Posting Notice.

My lands adjoining Shiner on South side of Catholic church are posted according to law and hunting and fishing are strictly prehibited. MRS. FALTSEK.
